Caution Concerning Forward Looking Statements

Certain statements in this report other than statements of historical fact, are forward-looking statements based on certain assumptions and reflect IGM Financial's current expectations. Forward-looking statements are provided for the purposes of assisting the reader in understanding the Company's financial position and results of operations as at and for the periods ended on certain dates and to present information about management's current expectations and plans relating to the future and readers are cautioned that such statements may not be appropriate for other purposes. These statements may include, without limitation, statements regarding the operations, business, financial condition, expected financial results, performance, prospects, opportunities, priorities, targets, goals, ongoing objectives, strategies and outlook of the Company, as well as the outlook for North American and international economies, for the current fiscal year and subsequent periods. Forward-looking statements include statements that are predictive in nature, depend upon or refer to future events or conditions, or include words such as "expects", "anticipates", "plans", "believes", "estimates", "seeks", "intends", "targets", "projects", "forecasts" or negative versions thereof and other similar expressions, or future or conditional verbs such as "may", "will", "should", "would" and "could".

This information is based upon certain material factors or assumptions that were applied in drawing a conclusion or making a forecast or projection as reflected in the forward-looking statements, including the perception of historical trends, current conditions and expected future developments, as well as other factors that are believed to be appropriate in the circumstances.

By its nature, this information is subject to inherent risks and uncertainties that may be general or specific and which give rise to the possibility that expectations, forecasts, predictions, projections or conclusions will not prove to be accurate, that assumptions may not be correct and that objectives, strategic goals and priorities will not be achieved.

A variety of material factors, many of which are beyond the Company's, and its subsidiaries' control, affect the operations, performance and results of the Company, and its subsidiaries, and their businesses, and could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations of estimated or anticipated events or results. These factors include, but are not limited to: the impact or unanticipated impact of general economic, political and market factors in North America and internationally, interest and foreign exchange rates, global equity and capital markets, management of market liquidity and funding risks, changes in accounting policies and methods used to report financial condition(including uncertainties associated with critical accounting assumptions and estimates), the effect of applying future accounting changes (including adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards), operational and reputational risks, business competition, technological change, changes in government regulations and legislation, changes in tax laws, unexpected judicial or regulatory proceedings, catastrophic events, the Company's ability to complete strategic transactions, integrate acquisitions and implement other growth strategies, and the Company's success in anticipating and managing the foregoing factors.

The reader is cautioned that the foregoing list of factors is not exhaustive of the factors that may affect any of the Company's forward-looking statements. The reader is also cautioned to consider these and other factors, uncertainties and potential events carefully and not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements. Other than as specifically required by law, the Company undertakes no obligation to update any forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date on which such statements are made, or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events, whether as a result of new information, future events or results, or otherwise.

Additional information about the risks and uncertainties of the Company's business is provided in its disclosure materials filed with the securities regulatory authorities in Canada, available at www.sedar.com.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

This report may also contain non-GAAP financial measures. Non-GAAP financial measures are used to provide management and investors with additional measures of performance. However, we caution that non-GAAP financial measures do not have standard meanings prescribed by GAAP and are not directly comparable to similar measures used by other companies. Specific instances of such measures that may be referred to within this document includes “Earnings before Interest and Taxes”.

We refer you to the appropriate reconciliation in the Management’s Discussion and Analysis of these non-GAAP financial measures to measures prescribed by GAAP.

Documents Incorporated by Reference

Readers of this presentation are directed to the following documents relating to IGM Financial's results:

- IGM Financial Q2, 2010 financial results press release issued August 5, 2010. This press release includes financial highlights as well as a summary earnings statement.¹
- IGM Financial Q2, 2010 consolidated financial statements and notes issued August 5, 2010.¹
- IGM Financial Q2, 2010 Management Discussion and Analysis ("MD&A"), which will be issued within a week following the date of this presentation.¹
- IGM Financial July, 2010 net sales press release issued August 4, 2010.
- IGM Financial 2009 Annual Report which was issued on March 24, 2010.

Each of these documents are made available on the Company's website at www.igmfinancial.com and also at www.sedar.com.

1. Effective in the second quarter of 2010, IGM Financial adopted certain changes in terminology to report earnings. The term "Net earnings" replaces "Net income", "Earnings before Interest & Taxes" replaces "Operating Income before Interest & Taxes" and the financial statement title "Consolidated Statements of Earnings" replaces "Consolidated Statements of Income". These terms are used throughout the various public disclosure documents referred to above. This change was made to standardize the nomenclature within the Power group of companies.
